Only awhile at first these heavenlier states,
These large wide-poised upplings could endure.
The high and luminous tension breaks too soon,

The body’s stone stillness and the life's hushed trance,
The breathless might and calm of silent mind;
Or slowly they fail as sets a golden day.
The restless nether members tire of peace;
A nostalgia of old little works and joys,

A need to call back small familiar selves,
To tread the accustomed and inferior way,
The need to rest in a natural pose of fall,
As a child who learns to walk can walk not long,
Replace the titan will for ever to climb,

On the heart's altar dim the sacred fire.
An old pull of subconscious cords renews;
It draws the unwilling spirit from the heights,
Or a dull gravitation drags us down to the blind driven inertia of our base.

This too the supreme Diplomat can use,
He makes our fall a means for greater rise.

For into ignorant Nature’s gusty field,
Into the half-ordered chaos of mortal life
The formless Power, the Self of eternal light

Follow in the shadow of the spirit’s descent;
The twin duality for ever one
Chooses its home mid the tumults of the sense.
He comes unseen into our darker parts
And, curtained by the darkness, does his work,

A subtle and all-knowing guest and guide,
Till they too feel the need and will to change.
All here must learn to obey a higher law,
Our body’s cells must hold the Immortal’s flame.
Else would the spirit reach alone its source

Leaving a half-saved world to its dubious fate.
Nature would ever labour unredeemed;
Our earth would ever spin unhelped in Space,
And this immense creation’s purpose fail
Till at last the frustrate universe sank undone.

Even his godlike strength to rise must fall:
His greater consciousness withdrew behind;
Dim and eclipsed, his human outside strove
To feel again the old sublimities,
Bring the high saving touch, the ethereal flame,

Call back to its dire need the divine Force.
Always the power poured back like sudden rain,
Or slowly in his breast a presence grew;
It clambered back to some remembered height
Or soared above the peak from which it fell.
485 Each time he rose there was a larger poise,
   A dwelling on a higher spirit plane;
The Light remained in him a longer space.
   In this oscillation between earth and heaven,
   In this ineffable communion’s climb
490 There grew in him as grows a waxing moon
   The glory of the integer of his soul.
   A union of the Real with the unique,
   A gaze of the Alone from every face,
   The presence of the Eternal in the hours
495 Widening the mortal mind’s half-look on things,
   Bridging the gap between man’s force and Fate
   Made whole the fragment-being we are here.
   At last was won a firm spiritual poise,
   A constant lodging in the Eternal’s realm,
500 A safety in the Silence and the Ray,
   A settlement in the Immutable.
   His heights of being lived in the still Self;
   His mind could rest on a supernal ground
   And look down on the magic and the play
505 Where the God-child lies on the lap of Night and Dawn
   And the Everlasting puts on Time’s disguise.
To the still heights and to the troubled depths
   His equal spirit gave its vast assent:
   A poised serenity of tranquil strength,
510 A wide unshaken look on Time’s unrest
   Faced all experience with unaltered peace.
   Indifferent to the sorrow and delight,
   Untempted by the marvel and the call,
   Immobile it beheld the flux of things,
515 Calm and apart supported all that is:
   His spirit’s stillness helped the toiling world.
   Inspired by silence and the closed eyes’ sight
   His force could work with a new luminous art
   On the crude material from which all is made
520 And the refusal of Inertia’s mass
   And the grey front of the world’s Ignorance
   And nescient Matter and the huge error of life.
   As a sculptor chisels a deity out of stone
   He slowly chipped off the dark envelope,
525 Line of defence of Nature’s ignorance,
   The illusion and mystery of the Inconscient
   In whose black pall the Eternal wraps his head
   That he may act unknown in cosmic Time.
   A splendour of self-creation from the peaks,
530 A transfiguration in the mystic depths,
   A happier cosmic working could begin
   And fashion the world-shape in him anew,
   God found in Nature, Nature fulfilled in God.
Already in him was seen that task of Power:

Life made its home on the high tops of self;
His soul, mind, heart became a single sun;
Only life’s lower reaches remained dim.

But there too, in the uncertain shadow of life,
There was a labour and a fiery breath;

The ambiguous cowled celestial puissance worked
Watched by the inner Witness’s moveless peace.

Even on the struggling Nature left below
Strong periods of illumination came:
Lightnings of glory after glory burned,

Experience was a tale of blaze and fire,
Air rippled round the argosies of the Gods,
Strange riches sailed to him from the Unseen;
Splendours of insight filled the blank of thought,
Knowledge spoke to the inconscient stillnesses,

Rivers poured down of bliss and luminous force,
Visits of beauty, storm-sweeps of delight
Rained from the all-powerful Mystery above.

Thence stooped the eagles of Omniscience.
A dense veil was rent, a mighty whisper heard;
Repeated in the privacy of his soul,
A wisdom-cry from rapt transcendences
Sang on the mountains of an unseen world;
The voices that an inner listening hears
Conveyed to him their prophet utterances,

And flame-wrapped outbursts of the immortal Word
And flashes of an occult revealing Light
Approached him from the unreachable Secrecy.
An inspired Knowledge sat enthroned within
Whose seconds illumined more than reason’s years:

An ictus of revealing lustre fell
As if a pointing accent upon Truth,
And like a sky-flare showing all the ground
A swift intuitive discernment shone.

One glance could separate the true and false,

Or raise its rapid torch-fire in the dark
To check the claimants crowding through mind’s gates
Covered by the forged signatures of the gods,
Detect the magic bride in her disguise
Or scan the apparent face of thought and life.
